

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Charles (Chuck) H. Woods

Vice President and Chief Financial Officer
Global Services and Support

Chuck Woods is Chief Financial Officer and vice president of Finance for Global Services & Support (GS&S), a business unit of Boeing Defense, Space & Security (BDS). In this role, he is responsible for all Finance-related activities for GS&S, a $9 billion business that provides innovative and capabilities-driven solutions in logistics, supply chain management, aircraft modifications, training and other services with more than 15,000 employees working in nearly 300 locations around the world, including operations in Australia, Saudi Arabia and the United Kingdom.

Previously, Woods served as vice president and CFO for the 787 Program in Boeing Commercial Airplanes, responsible for managing the financial performance and profitability of the program and leading an Everett, Washington, and Charleston, South Carolina, based finance team.

Woods also has served as vice president and CFO of Boeing Engineering, Operations & Technology, and as vice president of Supplier Management for Boeing Military Aircraft, a BDS business unit. He joined the company in 1990 as a contracts and pricing specialist, and served in a succession of finance and supplier management positions within Boeing's defense and space business.

Before joining Boeing, Woods held various management positions for the Jacobs Group, a nationwide shopping center developer.

Woods holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Truman State University and a Master of Business Administration degree from Southern Illinois University.

Woods is the Boeing executive focal for Truman State University, where he serves on the President's Advisory Council. He also serves on the board of directors for United Launch Alliance.
