

BIOGRAPHY

Christine Stanitski

Vice President and General Counsel

Christine Stanitski serves as vice president and general counsel of United Launch Alliance (ULA). In this role, she is ULA's senior legal advisor and leads the Law and Ethics departments as well as the Office of Internal Governance.

Prior to joining ULA, Stanitski served as general counsel for various lines of business at Lockheed Martin Corporation, where she provided legal advice and counsel for government and commercial programs and strategy and business development. Prior to Lockheed Martin Corporation, Christine practiced law at Finn Dixon & Herling LLP in Stamford, CT, and at the former law firm, Dewey Ballantine LLP, in New York, NY.

Stanitski received her Bachelor of Science degree from Cornell University and her Juris Doctorate degree from Fordham University School of Law.

